Corned Beef on Rye

STEP RIGHT UP . . . A buffet-style restaurant and delicatessen is attracting crowds since it opened last week, corner El Prado and Cabrillo. Ben's features all kinds of sandwiches, kosher-style. In addition to the restaurant service, the store features a complete delicatessen line. Owner is Ben Pollack (above). The new delicatessen is one of several which Pollacks opened in the Harbor area.

Exchange Club Holds Ladies' Nite

An informal dinner at the Fish Shanty March 2, highlighted Ladies' Night held by the Exchange Club of Torrance as 73 members and guests gathered.

Mayor Nick Drake was an honored guest, and addressed the group briefly. The Richfield Oil Company sponsored the evening's program concerning the methods of oil conservation and the effect this conservation could have on the future of California.

New den mothers in training for duty in North-Torrance Pack 951C include Mrs. Ira Lipstein, Mrs. Margaret G. White, and Mrs. Russ Sellers.

David Hawks In Hospital On Birthday

Celebrating his twelfth birthday in the hospital next Saturday, March 12, will be David Hawks, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hawks of 24814 Cypress avenue in Lomita.

Young David was brought in to Seaside Memorial Hospital in Long Beach by his father last Monday morning in the nick of time for an emergency appendectomy.

Among his many friends wishing him a speedy recovery are his pals of the Lomita Boy Scouts and scoutmaster Dick Spain.

Civic Group Boosts Mental Health Plan

Proposed legislation to strengthen and extend the Mental Health program of California received hearty endorsement from persons attending the February meeting of the Torrance Coordinating Council.

A letter was sent to Governor Knight urging him to give strong support to the 1955-56 budget of the State Department of Mental Hygiene, and asking him to insist that the budget include support to community mental health services.

Members present will be requesting the organization they represent to send similar messages. The explanations of the need was brought to the group by Warren Hamilton.

In observance of "Parks Day" and "Plant-a-Tree Week," being held throughout the county, there was a tree-planting ceremony at 4 p.m. March 2 at Alondra Park.

LIKE A BIG PIECE OF SWISS CHEESE . . . This platen which easily holds a man in its center is only one of the parts composing the largest hydraulic extrusion press ever built in the United States now being installed at Harvey Aluminum plant in Torrance. The press weighs 12,000 tons. The platen weighs 393,000 pounds.

Christian Endeavor Youth Group Outing

The junior and senior high members of the Christian Endeavor Society went for a horseback riding party recently with pastor Donald Fientge and Mrs. Fientge of the Calvary Community church, 1117 Milton avenue.

Going from Cubs to Scouts are Jerry Snavelly and James Hadley who were members of Cub Scout Pack 951C.
